COASTAL SPACES / THE MASTER BATH

Paper Trail

Wallpaper can make a huge style statement in a small space. But finding a wallcovering that stands up to the daily dose of humidity a bath dishes out can be tricky. For your safest bet, look for solid vinyl or vinyl-coated papers (like Thibaut's Coral Gables wallpaper shown here), which are water resistant and can be wiped down with a damp cloth.

MIRROR, MIRROR

Just a looking glass? Aim instead for a good-looking glass. Look for round or curvy mirrors to soften hard architectural lines (like boxy shower stalls), or try one with a colorful frame to enliven white walls or countertops.

Tip: When determining how to style your bath, consider how you'll be using it. Consider complementing a sea-blue bath with a zesty orange stool. Even a vibrant color can be a refreshing touch without overwhelming the space.
